Well done Jivan!

Well done to Jivan Drungilas of Year 10 who recently achieved a High Distinction in the Australian National Chemistry Quiz. This means that Jivan has achieved in the top ten percent in Australia in this particular Quiz, which is quite an exceptional achievement. Although he has achieved similar results in the past in Mathematics and Science, this is his first success of this nature for this year. Well done Jivan!

For more background information on the Australian National Chemistry Quiz turn to Page 16.

From the Principal's Desk

The 20th of October was Super Saturday, a day when the brightest and most capable Year 6 students from all of our local primary schools descend on Woolgoolga High school for a day of engaging work and assessment to gain a place in our sought after Excel Year 7 class for gifted and talented students. There were 58 eager applicants (only 30 places) who had already completed an extensive CV/application that included a recommendation from their Year 6 teacher. It is heartening to see so many eager aspirants applying to be part of this class. Quite a few applications have come from local private primary schools and this clearly demonstrates the quality education that is being delivered at Woolgoolga High School.

All applicants will receive a letter early next week indicating the makeup of the 2013 Excel class. It should also be noted that the calibre of the entire Year 7 intake in 2013 is of a high quality and the community can be ensured that all students are gaining a quality education at Woolgoolga High.

This week saw our great work highlighted in the statewide P&C Journal, an article was included on our impressive SMILE program, a double page colour spread on the work of our Year 12 Textile class major projects as well as an article on our successful 2012 NAIDOC assembly.

Trinity Sherry was awarded a Future leaders award on assembly. This award will help Trinity to realise her potential and help her throughout her schooling at Woolgoolga High. Well done Trinity!

Our magnificent Creative Expo is on next Friday 9th November, I urge you to come along and see firsthand the quality work of our most talented creative students. The HSC major works from a number of faculties will be on display and our hospitality students practicing their barista skill will be creating excellent coffee.

Literacy will always be at the front of education in all schools. Woolgoolga High school is currently enhancing and fine tuning the pedagogy (teaching) of literacy at our school. We have enlisted the support of Paula Madigan, one of the best literacy consultants from across the state. Last Monday's staff meeting included a one and a half hour workshop for our entire staff on Literacy, getting back to the basics. I have asked Paula to ensure as part of the Accelerated Literacy program to encourage all of our staff to use our new interactive classrooms to engage our students in literacy. This ongoing program is being led by Genette Maniatis our Deputy Principal and she too has a wealth of knowledge and expertise in Literacy.

The HSC examinations are coming to a close and the Year 12 formal is on next Saturday 10th November at the Coffs Harbour Racing Club at 6pm. It will be an event to remember.

Until next time

Guy Wright

Future Leaders Indigenous Award

Some time ago Woolgoolga High School nominated a group of outstanding students to be considered for the Future Leaders Award. This award recognises and rewards young Australians who have shown strong leadership and potential. These awards also aim to inspire others to engage in community issues and make a difference.

This year we are pleased to announce the Future Leaders Indigenous Award goes to Trinity Sherry of Year 11. Well done Trinity!

The Future Leaders Indigenous Awards recognise Indigenous students who show leadership and academic potential. Trinity is a school Prefect for 2013 and a leader within our school community.

Super Saturday

Last Saturday students from around the area from Corindi, Mullaway, Woolgoolga, Sandy Beach and Korora Public Schools, as well as St Francis Xavier and Bishop Druitt

College came to Woolgoolga High School as potential candidates for the 2013 Year 7 Excel class. Prior to this day, students submitted portfolios, displaying their academic prowess in order to be considered for this prestigious opportunity. Fifty-eight students have applied for entry into this class this year, with the students enjoying the Super Saturday at the school to further demonstrate their practical skills in many areas. The day started with a general welcome to students and their families, held in the Library (Below).

They were addressed by Mr Guy Wright (Principal) and several other members of staff that students will have close contact with over their transition to High School. From this, students followed Mrs Young to the school hall to sit their numeracy test (Below left).

Families stayed in the Library to hear further information about the school and more specifically about the 2013 excel class. Once the numeracy test was conquered students helped themselves to a tasty treat of pizza and fruit, kindly donated by Sean Williams from Woolgoolga Eagle Boys and the WHS P&C respectively (Below).

Once all food was devoured by the hungry tweens and teens, they commenced their rotations through the initiative challenges with Mrs Cathy Hall (Below left and right),

Small Steps in Child Care Program

GoodStart Early Learning Centre at Moonee (formerly ABC) has adopted Woolgoolga High School students as part of their working team in order to provide an opportunity for further exposure to the workplace. All of the students involved are intending to pursue a career in child care and are completing relevant subjects at school and at TAFE including Community & Family Studies, Exploring Early Childhood and Certificate II in Children Services (TAFE) as part of their HSC. The experience is project-based where students design and present an interactive project with a small group in order to encourage interaction with staff and students.

The eight students selected for this term have all completed observational Work Experience in child care centres during Year 10 in 2011, so the Small Steps program is an opportunity to further explore child care as a career.

Congratulations to Clair Hicks, Tiarne Bryce, Shannon Morrison, Jane Perry, Lawrie Pugh, Katrina Toohey, Abby Wilcox and Tyler Quiring.

Surfers with a Disability

Recently Mr Woods addressed the assembly about the summer season for Disabled Surfing Australia. It started 27th October and subsequent events 24th November, 5th January and 9th February 2013. Contact details are on the DSA website (<http://disabledsurfers.org/nsw/mid-north-coast-branch/>) or see Mr Woods in Industrial Arts or Liz (Scholten) in the Library.

Year 11 Exploring Early Childhood

Students from the Year 11 Exploring Early Childhood Course volunteered their time to help at the Sandy Beach Public School Fete. The students organised what designs they would paint on the faces and who would work in the various sections of the beauty parlour; face painting, nail painting or fake tattooing. This experience enabled the students to interact and communicate with children of various ages as well as parents/caregivers of various backgrounds and cultures. The students received wonderful feedback from various people who attended the fun filled evening regarding their commitment, work ethic and maturity on the evening. A big thanks goes to Lawrie Pugh, Lexie Hennessy, Shannon Morrison, Katrina Toohey, Ms Wilks and Ms Jeanes. A special thanks also goes to Renee Thorncroft who jumped in and helped on the tattoo station at the last minute.

Woopi High goes to Uni for the day

On Tuesday 23rd October, Year 11 Adviser Megan Hart and 39 Year 11 students ventured over to Southern Cross University (SCU) Coffs Harbour Campus to participate in a senior schools day. Students participate in two information sessions about careers of their choosing and general information session and lunch, while Mrs Hart went to the Careers Advisor briefing. She learned about changes in the Job & Skills Market and an SCU pilot project that helps develop student's resilience to assist with their transition into and through university and onto the workplace - both fascinating presentations.

All had an informative and inspiring day and promote other students to attend next year. The students' favourite part of the day was the question and answer session held at the end of the day, where they fired questions at current students, and to their credit, were cool and collected in their response.

A huge thankyou to Mr Peter Marshall, senior recruitment officer at SCU for all of his organisation for the day, student panel members, presenters and Jason who drove the bus over and back on the day.

Woolgoolga High students contribute to Legacy

Over the course of this year a significant number of students from Woolgoolga High School have made a contribution to Legacy. These students (pictured) were presented with certificates of appreciation at last week's assembly. Congratulations to (L-R) Jessie Gentle, Maddy Weiss, Patrick Mullan, Bianca McNeill, Jamie Durning, Holly Stapleton, Zoe Schmidt, Jeremy Rush, Jasmine Thorpe and Charanjit Lidder for your contribution to this worthy community organisation.

Woolgoolga Year 11's help out at Sandy Beach Fete

Congratulations to those students from Woolgoolga High that assisted at the Sandy Beach fete recently. Pictured were some of the sample face painting that was on offer for all who attended. Well done girls!

Fact Sheet 5

Australian Alcohol Guideline for Children and young people under 18

Not drinking alcohol is the safest option.

For children under 15

Parents and carers should be advised that children under 15 years of age are at the greatest risk of harm from drinking and that for this age group, not drinking is especially important

For Young people aged 15-18 years

The safest option is to delay the initiation of drinking for as long as possible

Adolescent brain development and alcohol

The brain is not fully developed until about 25 years of age. Excessive drinking can affect decision making, problem solving, memory, reasoning and concentration.

Permanent brain damage can result in greater risk taking, lack of judgment such as failure to think before acting, impaired visual and spatial skills, learning difficulties and poorer academic outcomes.

Mental health

Drinking at a young age increases the risk of mental health problems such as depression, anxiety, bipolar disorder, attention deficit disorder and increased risk of self harm including suicide, delinquent behavior and alcohol dependency in later life.

Fact Sheet 6

Young Drivers aged 17-25 years. Why are they at risk?

Facts:

1. Road crashes are one of the leading causes of injury, disability and death among young people.
2. Young drivers are over-represented in road crashes compared to other age groups.
3. Young drivers in rural areas experience a higher rate of fatalities than those from urban areas.
4. Speeding is the number one cause of road crashes.
5. Other high-risk behaviours that significantly contribute to road crashes and injuries include:
 - Drink driving
 - Driver fatigue and distraction
 - Not using seat belts

Driver inexperience: Often young drivers don't realise that it takes time and lots of practice to develop safe driving skills.

Developing brain: Parts of the brain responsible for self control and for recognising and managing hazards do not fully mature until after the teenage years, so young drivers are more likely to experiment and take dangerous risks.

Overconfidence and risk taking: Young drivers can be over confident about their driving ability and underestimate dangers on the road.

Having friends as passengers: Young drivers may be distracted by passengers or may feel pressured to take risks, such as speeding. Every extra peer passenger carried by a young driver increases the chance of crashing.

Alcohol and other drugs: Young people often do not understand that alcohol and other drugs affect a driver's skills, mood and most importantly behaviour. Safe driving requires clear judgement, concentration and ability to react to what's happening on the road.

Busy lifestyles: Work, sport and study often mean busy lifestyles for young people, which may cause them to drive when tired – especially late at night. Driving tired significantly impairs driving, even if the driver doesn't feel sleepy.

The RRISK program aims to increase awareness of these risk factors and how to improve road safety. For more information about the RRISK program and risk taking, visit our website www.rrisk.com.au

Background Information for The Australian National Chemistry Quiz

The Australian National Chemistry Quiz is a unique chemical education activity. It provides a major focus for secondary school students on the relevance of chemistry in an exciting and stimulating way. It has made a significant contribution to the development of a grass-root appreciation of the role of chemistry in our society. Many of the questions are aimed at emphasising the connection between the academic image of chemistry and its day to day applications and its importance in the home, the environment and

PARENT/CARER ALERT

There has been a report of a highly infectious disease called

Scabies ("The Itch") in our school community.

The usual time between infection and illness is several days, sometimes even weeks.

Symptoms and signs include severe itchiness continuing for days or even weeks and becoming worse at night. The itching is caused by a tiny mite which burrows under the skin. Warm parts of the body such as wrists, armpits, elbows, back of shoulders, buttocks, groin and around the genitals are most affected. Scratch marks and sometimes tracks showing the line of the 'burrow' are seen on the skin.

Secondary infection may cause pus-filled sores, very like impetigo ("scabby sores"), where the affected areas have been scratched.

Please keep your child at home if they show signs of these symptoms.

Leave Pass for Sport

Students and Parents are reminded that School Sport is a compulsory requirement for the R.O.S.A.

Students who cannot avoid an appointment on a Wednesday afternoon during sport time must follow the correct procedure to leave school grounds.

Students must bring a note from home and submit to Head Teacher Admin (Ms Nurm) who will be outside the deputy's office before school on Wednesday morning.

After approval for leave is granted by the Head Teacher Admin students take their note to the front office where a 'leave pass' will be given to the student stating the time they will be departing school grounds.

Students may leave school grounds at the time the 'leave pass' states.

Failing to follow the above procedure may result in your child having fractional truancy on the record and a demotion in the school welfare merit system.
